You asked why he can't keep the letter.

STAT [redacted] tells me he was a covert type, under cover, on a project (he could not recall which project off hand). However, this is standard procedure and a review would have to be made to see whether a waiver might be in order so that he could keep the letter. If this not enough info, [redacted] will be glad to review the case & outline the reasoning behind this in relation to the SOP in such cases.
